WALINDWA

Nov 2015 - Elma Kamonong High School

A group of Walindwa Directors & volunteers is on their way to Kenya. While we wait for their report, we hope you enjoy these recent building updates from Roy and Helen Stover.

The Walindwa team is very excited about the continuing expansion of Elma Kamonong High School. The school opened with only a Form I (freshman) classroom and in January 2015 added a group of Form II students.

Workmen add the ceiling to the Form III (juniors) room; flooring and window glass are still to come.

Courtesy of a generous gift given this summer, the current goal is to knock out the rest of the construction all at once: classrooms for the Form III and IV students, dormitories for the boys and the girls who will come as boarding students, expanded toilet facilities and a new staff room.

The walls go up on the boys' dorm! The girls' building is more complete, with stone walls up to the wall plate. The trusses are built and will receive a coat of wood preservative to hold off the termites.

We queried local missionary Roy Stover as to whether there was a way that Walindwa supporters could help. "A major item that we are going to need is bunk beds for the new dorms," Roy answered. "They are $120 each and we will need up to thirty of them. Any help in purchasing these would be greatly appreciated."

bulletin board in the staff room. The teachers have already put the room to use, although it is awaiting window panes and painting.

The teachers are not forgotten! Walindwa has received a donation to purchase a new printer and associated supplies for the administrators and staff of the high school.

HOW TO HELP

Walindwa is raising funds to buy bunk bed for the new dorms. Each bed is $120 and EKHS will need about 30 of them.
