E-readers at Elma Barnett!

This September, the students at EBCCCK and EKHS were blessed to receive 50 e-readers from Worldreader, a non-profit organization bringing electronic learning to the under-served in Africa. The e-readers were downloaded with the Kenyan school curriculum and with classic African and Western literature (including Shakespeare!).

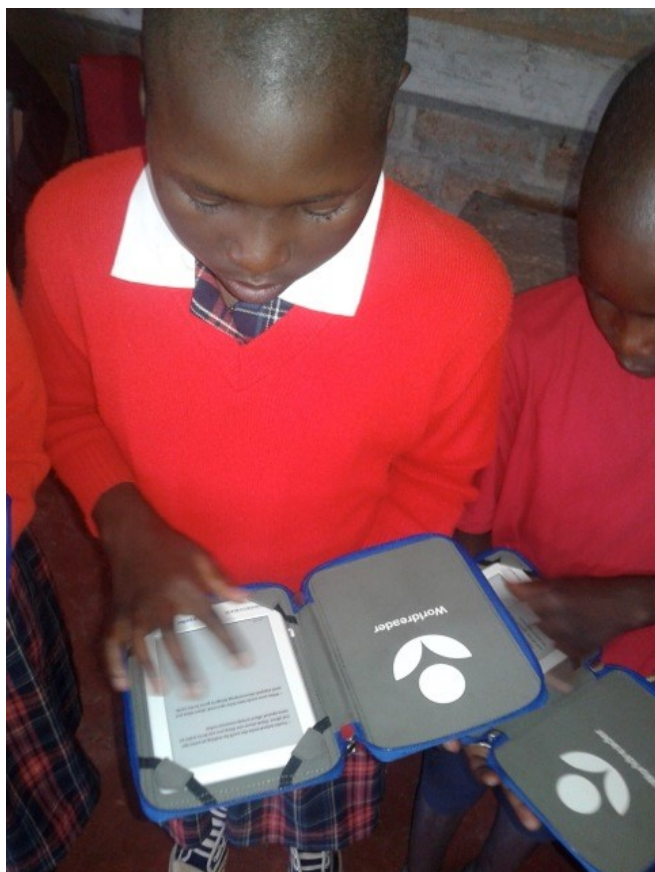

The readers were a gift from a generous donor at The Village Presbyterian Church (Rancho Santa Fe, CA) who is dedicated to supporting Walindwa's efforts to make our schools among the most competitive in the country and to provide our children and the high school boarding students with the best, state-of-the-art resources possible for their education. This represents a large step forward in these efforts and we thank God always for all of you helping make this possible.

Blessings, Keith Edwards, Vice President
