Giving Tuesday

EBCCCK IS GOING GREEN!

It's #GivingTuesday, a day to help fund the organizations you believe in. If Walindwa and Elma Barnett Children's Centre in Kenya are on your giving list this Christmas season, might we suggest a custom "cooking pot"? The EBCCCK new bio-fuel system is up and running.

Cows? Check! Concrete pit? Check! Cow dung = methane = bio-gas? Check!

We just need one last piece: the large, institutional size cooker (~ $800) which will allow the cafeteria to provide 3 hot meals a day for 120 high school students. If you write Giving Tuesday on your check or in the notes field of your PayPal donation, we will throw your donation into the pot (pardon the pun). Give the blessing of food and meal self-sufficiency to the EBCCCK kids in 2019!
